STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1909.

NO. 35.

HUSTONVILLE.

Capt. J. S. Cecil, of the 19th U. S. Infantry, is with his cousin, Mrs. Dr. Barker.

Dr. Alcorn is having Hardin Downey put on extra job of concrete side walk in front of his home.

The Ladies of the C. W. B. M. will meet at the Christian church Thursday at 3 p. m., and all members are invited to be present.

The Hustonville Telephone Co.'s exchange, having been destroyed by the late fire, will be in full running order by July 1st in the Newton building.

The wheat harvest is about finished and oats never looked better and will give an unusually large yield for this section. Corn is looking fine but is not out of the weeds.

Wm. W. Peavyhouse secured a first class certificate as a teacher before the examining board in your city last week and we doubt if there was one having a higher rating.

Miss Marguerite McCormack was the winner of a beautiful gold watch given Saturday evening to the young lady getting largest number of votes, by "Anderson's Comedians," a first-class vaudeville company.

Mrs. Jennie Carpenter will entertain her class, "The Growers and Goers," at her home on Friday afternoon next from 3 to 6 and from 8:30 to 11 p. m. All members are asked to take note of this and come either in the afternoon or to the night meeting according to their convenience.

The work done by the steam grader in this locality recently has evidenced the fact its work is a great improvement over the work done by plowing and scraping. When the amount and quality of work done in a day by it, is properly considered, it will be found to be cheaper than the old system.

Transactions in live stock here the past week were: D. C. Allen one car hogs and cattle 5 1/2 to 6c and 3 to 4 1/2c respectively. Jno. Lynn, one car cattle to Cincinnati at 3 1/2 to 4 1/2. Coulter & McCormack, one mixed car hogs and butcher stuff 5 1/2 and 4 1/2c respectively. McCormack, Myers & Vaughn, one car lambs 6 1/2c. This firm has 500 fine young ewes that they will hold for the fall market.

Miss Allie Yantis, of Lancaster, was the guest of the Misses Baughman last week. Miss Ada Alcorn has returned from a delightful visit to her sister, Miss Mattie, in Chicago. Miss Birtie Breeding, of Columbia, is visiting C. L. Pite at Violet Slope. Col. Jno. Morris and Mr. Dave Prewitz were the guests of T. L. Carpenter. Mrs. Pearl Beverly, of Nicholasville, is visiting Dr. C. Sipple and family at Jumbo. Mr. L. C. Dunn has returned from Louisville in a greatly improved condition after a few weeks treatment there by a specialist for general debility.

Last week Mrs. Burdette Powell and seven-year-old son and child a few months old got into their runabout for a short drive. The son driving, ran over an obstruction throwing him over the dashboard, when, Mrs. P. laying the infant on floor of vehicle, leaned forward to help her son, who was holding to the crossbar, while the horse, running, struck another obstruction throwing Mrs. Powell out, both wheels passing over her. The horse was stopped by a man who knew the rig, and getting in to take it home found the infant, Mrs. Powell and son. Mrs. P. was unconscious, but aside from scare and slight bruises all made an almost miraculous escape.

MIDDLEBURG.

Magistrate's court, for the trial of civil cases, was held here Friday.

F. L. Jones and W. E. McWhorter are out cutting wheat. The crop in this section is good, though the weather has been quite unfavorable for cutting.

Owing to the continued rainy weather and the very sorry crop prospect, Q. R. Jones thought it advisable to call off the Fourth of July entertainment at Oak Park.

With flour at $4 per hundred, bacon at 15c per pound and meal at $1 per bushel, looks somewhat like starvation. These are the prices here and poor mortals are having to grin and endure them.

J. W. Hogen, our hustling huckster, will likely be the democratic candidate for jailer in this county. "Mr. Johnnie," as he is familiarly known, is quite popular, especially among the ladies of whom he buys eggs and chickens, and J. P. Richardson will have to "git up and git" if he occupies the jailer's mansion during the next four years.

F. L. Jones has resigned his position at the telephone exchange and Lester Jeter now has charge. J. W. Hogen and E. L. Gadberry went to Liberty Monday. Miss Rhoda Elliott, of Mt. Olive, is visiting her uncle, S. G. Elliott. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cox, who have been with Mr. and Mrs. Jason at Yosemite for some weeks, returned Friday to their home at Alma, Nebraska.

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

The announcement of the sudden death of Mr. Thomas J. Robinson at Hustonville last Friday was received here with the deepest sorrow and regret, this being the place of his nativity, where many relatives and friends reside. Funeral services were conducted at his late home in Hustonville on Sunday forenoon by Eld. W. S. Willis and the remains were buried in Lancaster cemetery in the afternoon. The immense throng of people that attended evidenced the high respect and affection in which he was held. He was a son of Jacob Robinson, one of the organizers of the congregation of the Christian church in this city. There were seven sons and two daughters in this prominent and influential family, this being the fifth son to pass away within a few years. Mr. A. C. Robinson being the only survivor. Deceased embarked in business in Hustonville about 40 years ago and was 66 years old when he died. He married Miss Minnie Kauffman, a sister of the late H. C. Kauffman. By honesty and industry he acquired considerable property, which, together with the richer inheritance of an untarnished name, is bequeathed to those whom he loved. He was a member of the Christian church and his life was devoted to and guided by those correct principles which inspire happiness here and hereafter. He had no warning of the approach of death and he needed none, for he had obeyed the divine commands to watch and be ready. Every community is made better by such a life, and his excellent traits of character and high standard of morals will be emulated by those with whom he lived, moved and had his being.—Lancaster Record.

MATRIMONIAL.

Dr. W. F. Carter and Miss Bettie B. Hicks, popular young folks of Brodhead, were married last week.

William Jennings Bryan, Jr., and Miss Helen Virginia Berger, of Milwaukee, Wis., were married at Kinikinic Lodge, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Levering, on the West shore of Grand Lake, Colorado.

Mr. W. T. Flanagan, of Lebanon Junction, and Miss Laura Dye, of this county, were quietly married June 23, by Rev. T. W. Barker at the Methodist parsonage. The bride is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dye, of Kingsville, and stands high among the leading educational workers of the county and we feel that one of our best teachers is leaving the ranks. The groom is a splendid young man and formerly lived in Stanford. He has been employed a number of years on the L. & N. railroad and is one of the best engineers on the road. Their many friends join in wishing them all happiness. They left immediately for Cincinnati, Indianapolis and other Northern points. After July 10 they will be at home to their friends at Lebanon Junction.

A FRIEND.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint. New Stanford Drug Co.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Homer Carpenter closed a meeting at the Christian church at Hilltop, Fleming county, with 20 additions.

Rev. D. M. Walker will preach at the Christian church at Crab Orchard next Sunday morning and night. Rev. Geo. D. Verco, pastor of the Crab Orchard church, will fill Rev. Walker's pulpit here.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Bolls, Ulcers, Eczema, Salt Rheum, For Sore Eyes, Cold Sores, Chapped Hands its supreme. Infalible for Piles. Former Representative John W. Cravens, of the Montgomery-Menefee legislative district, died at his home in Hazel Green.

Trouble Makers Ousted.

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his Dyspepsia and Indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves, healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Judge E. C. O'Rear, of the Kentucky court of appeals, was the principal speaker before the Tennessee Bar Association in annual convention at Chattanooga. His subject was "Trial by Jury."

It is not believed that any appeal will be taken either by Mrs. Howard Gould or her husband from the decision of Justice Dowling granting Mrs. Gould the separation for which she sued and $36,000 a year alimony.

A mob of 50 masked men took Sylvester Stennien, a Negro known as "Alabama Red," from the jail at Wilburton, Okla., and lynched him. The Negro had shot and killed Albert Turner, a Deputy Constable, who had attempted to arrest him.

The Georgia railroad strike arbitration board decided against the seniority of white firemen over Negroes. The arbitrators, however, placed a premium on intelligence among firemen which it is believed will ultimately result in the gradual elimination of all except the most expert Negroes.

County Judge S. S. Taulbee, of Breathitt county, narrowly escaped being shot to death while in a difficulty with John and Norman McCoy near his lumber yard at Jackson. According to Judge Taulbee the trouble arose over a disputed payment for work done by the McCoy's, who were later arrested.

Robert Emmett Eastman, cornered by a posse seeking him on the charge of murdering Mrs. Woodwill, drew a revolver and fired a bullet into his heart while standing in the rowboat near St. Michaels, Md., in which he had attempted to escape. Though the police believe Eastman was alone responsible for the crime, his story written in a letter found on his body will be investigated.

The entire wood pulp and print paper schedules were agreed to by the Senate with amendments as proposed by Senator Brown. The wood pulp amendment provides for the free admission of mechanically ground pulp, with a provision that where any country is found discriminating against the United States the President shall have the power to levy a duty of one-twelfth of a cent per pound. On chemical wood pulp there is to be a duty of one-sixth of a cent if unbleached and one-fourth of a cent if bleached. In case of discrimination the duty in each case shall be doubled.

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON

SOME misguided writer has fired a blank in the last issue of the Kentucky Advocate. He has made an attack against something about which he knows, ostensibly, very little. He says the new movement for educational progress is to loot the treasury and to benefit a favored few. In the first place, not one cent of the State's coin is taken for the purpose of paying the expenses of the speakers. The thrust made impugns the motives of hundreds of the leading educators, among whom is Danville's own Dr. Hinit, who most assuredly can have no motive other than altruistic. In the same issue of the Advocate will be found a notice of the increase of per capita, despite the fact that there are over 4,735 more pupils children in our borders. The purpose of this campaign is to stir up a general uplift, to create a healthy sentiment for better schools, better school houses and better surroundings, and to win a strong support for the foundation principles of a school law which has for its spirit progress in education. An aroused public sentiment along educational lines means an improvement of our citizenship, and who can conscientiously oppose any movement which will vastly improve citizenship, our good State's most valuable asset? We would respectfully suggest to our deluded friend that he depart from the fears that Kentucky's bone and sinew of legislators and educators are all corrupt and are oligarchical. Such fears are bats and owls hooting at the dawn, and the hopes of many of our favored sons in the pedagogical world are larks, singing the new day of a better enlightened citizenship.

The thrust at Normal Schools can not be verified by the argument deduced in the article which says they are for a favored few. Nine tenths of the students in these Normal Schools are rural school teachers, or they expect soon to make teachers in the rural schools. Teachers from all sections are in attendance. Ask any of these if they are benefited by said training and they universally answer, yes. Then we can easily assert that the illiterate sections are the beneficiaries, for as is the teacher, so is the school. These more than 2,000 teachers so trained since the establishment of these schools, will go to as many schools better prepared to instruct and develop those who attend their schools.

We hope that the intellect of the man who knocks on the attempt at higher education and improved conditions will be cleared of its maze and that his heart may be led along the upward path; "for the heart even in its dreams hears the sound of invisible music." May the young goddess, the daughter of Light and Beauty, lead all such benighted friends from the bogs, the thorns and the night, and lead them, as did Homer, to the all but heavenly heights of a purer light educationally. It is the ardent wish of this writer that some great light may shine around about all such persons who see only in every advance movement, as that which shone around that young patriot, Saul, as he journeyed toward Damascus and give new impulses to their hearts and make their days to be full of activity for progress in education instead of exercising themselves against it.

SPEAKING of typographical errors, a funny one appears in the Lexington Herald of Sunday, when the immortal James Birney Beck is referred to as "James P. Puck." It is told that when a gentleman named Buck was appointed Minister to Peru, Senator Beck, who had unconsciously signed his petition, asked, "who the hell is Puck?" His shades will now doubtless turn over in their graves and inquire, "who the hell is Puck?"

THE Paducah Negro who was to have been hanged Friday was a fool for killing himself. He might have known Gov. Willson would not let him hang. In an hour after his death from morphine a reprieve from the executive, who did not know of the suicide, reached the sheriff. It begins to look like Willson has determined that no Negro shall feel the halter draw.

WASHINGTON has an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of a rooster on a square of which 75 per cent. is improved, without the consent of a majority of those owning the property. If such an ordinance were made and enforced against howling dogs it would be more appropriate and add to the enjoyment of tired nature's sweet restorer, gentle sleep.

POOR Mrs. Howard Gould! She will have to scuffle along on a beggarly $36,000 a year alimony and wear a dress more than once. She will also have to cut out the toddlers. It horrible to contemplate. May be, however, that having been elevated from a circus girl she can abbreviate her clothing and drink red lemonade for a stimulant.

TEDDY capped the climax one day last week by killing three buffaloes. Your "Uncle Theodore" is a hunter from away back, especially when he has a bunch of experienced hunters to drive up the game.

EVIDENTLY TO DEFEAT AN INCOME TAX.

Mr. Taft thinks it would be trifling with the Supreme Court for Congress to pass an income tax law on the supposition that that tribunal would reverse itself, adding that such action would not strengthen popular confidence in the stability of judicial construction of the constitution. But even a big president like the present incumbent of the office can be mistaken. A majority of the people of the United States thought the decision 14 years ago which was made by a court divided five to four, both wrong and unfortunate, and they want a court whose personnel has been greatly changed to be given a chance to affirm or reverse the former decision. There is never great popular confidence in the decisions of a divided court and the one on the income tax is no exception. Mr. Taft's suggestion as to a constitutional amendment to secure an income tax is for the purpose apparently of delaying and preventing the democratic effort to secure an income tax. The youngest inhabitant would hardly live to see the culmination of the slow process of constitutional amendment.

As the 4th of July falls on Sunday this year, the annual slaughter will likely be postponed till the 5th. The American Medical Association has collected statistics of the slaughter on Independence day for five years and they show that 1,153 persons were killed in the United States. The wounded numbered 23,673. Last year there were 163 killed and 987 wounded. Appeals for a sane and sober celebration of the Declaration of Independence this year will doubtless, as formerly, fall on deaf ears and Tuesday's daily papers will contain as usual casualties that will discount the report of a battle of deadly war.

The fiscal court of Lyon county, with utter disregard for the law and to show its sympathy for criminals, appropriated the people's money to pay the damages assessed against certain night riders by the Federal court in favor of parties who were either whipped or had their property destroyed. It was a most flagrant abuse of power and a shameful exhibition of a love of lawlessness. It is gratifying, however, to note that the county attorney has just brought suit to enjoin the appropriation and there is every prospect that a most audacious scheme will be blocked.

OUR brother, Mr. W. P. Walton, of Lexington, was overcome by heat as he was going from his office to his home about noon Friday and for a while could neither see nor hear. His sight came to him in a short while but his hearing was not good for a day or so. We are glad to state that he was about himself again when last heard from.

DID you ever try to wade through one of Miss Alice Lloyd's interminable newspaper articles on the tobacco question? If not, don't run the risk of being sun stroked this hot weather. Gov. Willson, in his happiest mood, never strung together words with such volubility and absence of meaning.

SENATOR BAILEY has been explaining his vote some more for a duty on hides, iron, etc. If the brilliant Texan will stick to the democratic platform and stop voting with the republicans he will not have to protest so much. It is a pity that he continues to disappoint his friends.

THE young king and queen of Spain are setting their subjects a good example against race suicide. Three children inside of three years would be a pretty good record even for a mountain pair. It is unheard of in royalty.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Willson appointed John P. Haswell, of Breckenridge county, Railroad Commissioner to succeed the late McD. Ferguson.

Hon. John M. Letterie, for 10 terms a member of the Legislature from Louisville, has announced himself a candidate again. He is a most excellent man and a staunch democrat.

The two-cent fare law passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature in 1907 received another blow when Judge Willson in common pleas court at Philadelphia declared the law unconstitutional.

The president nominated Jordan Herbert Stabler, of Maryland, and Philip M. Hoefele, of Missouri, to be secretaries of legations of the United States at Quito, Ecuador, and Madrid, Spain, respectively.

For the first time since the long wrangle over the tariff schedules, Senator Aldrich met defeat Friday, when Senator Penrose's amendment to place a duty of 1 cent a gallon on crude oil was lost by a vote of 34 to 40.

Gov. Hoke Smith, who retires from office, suspended from office Chairman D. G. McLendon, of the State Railroad Commission. Suspension was because of McLendon's recent decision in refusing to order State railroads to reduce rates between Savannah and Atlanta, known as the "port rates."

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn boys grown back to flesh again. This is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and rams of this deplorable disease. In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfect, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

FOR the benefit of the people on the east side, who live away from the business part of the city, M. Cook & Co., druggists, at 700 Woodland Street, have installed an automobile delivery. This is the first drug store in Nashville to do that, though it is quite common in the east. The growth of their business demanding some method which might put them in close touch with their customers, an automobile seemed to be the only practical way to meet the situation, so they have purchased a handsome car of high speed capacity for the purpose, and will, when the business demands, add another. Therefore residents away out need not experience any more delay in having their prescriptions filled than though they lived in the shadow of a drug store.—Nashville Banner. Mr. Cook is a brother of Mesdames G. B. Cooper and E. C. Walton, of this place.

STEPHENSON.—After an illness extending over almost a decade, Mrs. Bettie Pennington Stephenson, relict of Alex Stephenson, breathed her last at 9:25 Saturday night. Always a frail woman, she grew weaker and weaker as the years went by and some 10 years ago she was taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Reid, where she remained in her room most of the time and where the end expectedly came. Deceased was 54 years old and had been a member of the Presbyterian church for many years. Her feeble health prevented her taking part in the services of her church but she read her Bible regularly and talked a great deal about her church and pastor. Mrs. Stephenson is survived by her mother, Mrs. J. B. Owsley, and sister, Mrs. Hugh Reid, and her death brings deep sorrow to their hearts. May He give them strength to bear their burden and make them soon to realize that their loss is her eternal gain. At 10:30 yesterday morning touching funeral services were conducted at the Reid home by Revs. J. L. Yandell and D. M. Walker, after which the body was laid to rest in Buffalo cemetery. May those who weep find comfort in the words, He doeth all things well.

DENNY.—Mrs. Pattie Denny, who had been ill of a complication of troubles for a long time, died at 4:30 Sunday afternoon. Funeral services will be conducted at her late home on Main street at 10 o'clock this morning by her pastor, Rev. J. L. Yandell, after which the remains will be laid beside those of her husband, Mr. Archibald K. Denny, in Buffalo cemetery. Mrs. Denny was a daughter of Dr. Jackson Givens, of this county, and her entire life had been spent in Lincoln. She is survived by a daughter Miss Belle Denny, two half brothers, Dr. Jackson Givens, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. Solon Givens, of Southwestern Kentucky, and a half sister, Miss Delia Givens, of Danville. She had been connected with the Presbyterian church of this place for many years and was a most excellent member. Mrs. Givens was a very bright woman and few people in this section are better read than she was. She was a splendid woman and to know her well was to love her greatly. The sympathy of this entire community goes out to the many who are saddened by her taking away but for the daughter, who is left alone, great sorrow is felt. May she and all of them find comfort in the thought that the spirit of the splendid wife and loving mother is now with the God Who gave it.

MIRACLE.—Mrs. John Mircale, who lived with her husband and children on Green river, was found dead in bed the other morning. She had been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time. Deceased was about 65 years old and came to this county from Bell about two years ago. The burial took place in the family burying ground.

THE BANQUET A SUCCESS.—Walton's Opera House was a scene of beauty and joy for several hours to 125 or more men on Thursday evening when the biggest banquet seen in Stanford for many years was given. The members of the Bible class taught by Eld. D. M. Walker were the hosts and right well did they entertain their invited guests. The good women of the Christian church spent many days preparing for the occasion and when 8 o'clock Thursday evening came all was in readiness. The gentlemen were invited to assemble at the Christian church, where a half dozen pretty girls served frappe. Some 30 minutes were spent in conversation, after which the crowd marched to the opera house where a splendid orchestra from Lexington was making melodious music. In the opera house were 12 tables, with room for 12 persons at each, most artistically set and at these the guests were soon seated. Eld. Walker announced Eld. Joseph Severance, of Frankfort, toastmaster, and after stating his plans for the evening he invited his hearers to partake of the good things before them. At each seat was a plate of good things consisting of many substantial. This was enjoyed, after which Mr. W. I. Williams, of Lancaster, was introduced. He spoke on "Some of the Joys of the Bible Class" and told so much about the Bible, its teachings and benefits that some thought him a bishop. Mr. Williams is a most interesting talker and his heart is in the work of Bible teaching. Hon. W. H. Shanks was the next speaker and he interested the large crowd for some 15 minutes on "The Christianity of Christ." His knowledge of the Bible was so plainly shown that Toastmaster Severance moved that he eschew politics and enter the ministry. Mr. Shanks' remarks were greatly enjoyed and heartily endorsed. The next course was then served. It consisted of ices, red raspberries and cakes. After this was over, Eld. H. C. Garrison, of Danville, was introduced. His theme was "Man's Job." He dwelt on the statement that ministers should not be expected to do all the church work but that laymen should have a big part. He thought that well conducted Bible classes were conducive to the upbuilding of the community and happiness of the home. Rev. Garrison is a clear, forceful talker and his efforts were well received. The third course of the banquet—coffee and waters—was then served and after having been partaken of by Eld. D. M. Walker brought the enjoyable evening's entertainment to a close with a few well chosen words. It gave him great pleasure to have the visiting brothers present, it made him happy to know that the banquet had been such a decided success and he felt thankful to those who had contributed to the evening's enjoyment. He believed, as did many of his hearers, that the coming together would be an incentive to better work in the Bible Class and church and that future developments would prove the value of the happy gathering. As toastmaster, Rev. Severance is all right. He has an amusing anecdote for every occasion and tells a story as well as the best of them. Rev. Walker and his Bible Class were fortunate in having Rev. Severance with them. The ladies who had the banquet in charge beautifully decorated the opera house and were untiring in their work of making things good and pretty for the auspicious occasion.
